

Dear Colleagues,

We are excited to invite panel proposals for the upcoming Annual LDE-GMD Conference, which will bring together policymakers, practitioners, activists, students, and academics to engage with the past, present, and future of migration and diversity governance.

We welcome discussions on collaborative research between universities, new policy projects, or generating discussion. We particularly encourage panels that involve societal stakeholders and adopt an LDE approach, integrating perspectives from Leiden, Delft, and Erasmus researchers within a transdisciplinary framework.

Conference Information

- Date: Wednesday 13th November 2024 (13:00 - 17:30)
- Location: Scheltema, Leiden - Marktsteeg 1, 2312 CS Leiden (no hybrid)
- Admission: The conference is free of charge for registered participants
- Language: English

Panel Proposal Guidelines - Include the following information:

- Title & Description: Include the panel's general objective.
- Organisers: Provide names and contact details of the organisers.
- Panel organisers/panellists Information: Institutions/organisations and/or fields (We encourage an LDE approach, transdisciplinary framework, and involvement of societal stakeholders)
- Panel Format: Describe the envisioned format for the 45-minute panel session.

Submission Details:

- Abstract: A 200-word abstract outlining the panel proposal.
- Deadline: Submit your proposals by July 1st.
- Submission: Email proposals to info@gmdcentre.nl and y.c.huang@essb.eur.nl.
- Result: Before August, we will contact applicants via email, and by mid-august, we will announce the panels to participants

We look forward to your proposals that could stimulate meaningful discussions and exchanges about the past, present, and future of migration and diversity governance during our 2024 conference.

Warm regards,

LDE-GMD Team
